

In Loving Memory

Bodhi Hole

24th January 2020 - 16th August 2024

A Little Traveller named Bodhi Hole

Taken from us too early, our hearts are breaking in every way We still have so much love to give you Bodhi;
to repay the joy you showed us every day Your days were filled with happiness, despite your pain you remained sunny and bright People marvelled at your abundant hair, your huge belly laughs our greatest delight
No one has travelled more than you little Bodhi, a wanderer and adventurer in your pram
The memories of your trips won't disappear, Bodhi, true love never can.

A little man with eyes that light up, a soul who has perhaps been here before Your beautiful eyes told a thousand quiet stories, that you will take with you forevermore.
You shared your smiles and love of water, a precious boy who melted hearts
No one ever imagined the time that we would lose you, or to ever be apart.

But the beautiful bond that was created will never go away,
And nestled closely in our hearts,
Bodhi is where you'll always stay.
