Devoted Heart

*He lived with purpose, strong and true,
In all he said, in all he'd do.
A loving husband, stubborn yet kind,
With loyal heart and thoughtful mind.*

*A father who instilled what's right,
A Googool, warm, a guiding light.
In work, in play, he gave his all,
A brother firm, who'd always stand tall.*

*To friends, the life of every day,
With jokes and joy along the way.
Though gone, his love still lights our way—
