Opening Prayer

Patricia Fazzari

Loving God,

Thank you for being with us today as we celebrate the life of Anna.

We thank you for the gift of our mother who gave us life, nurtured us,
and led us by brave example.

We trust you will receive her with open arms

Surround her with the light of Your love and grant her eternal peace.

Until we meet again, keep her close, and keep us strong, knowing that this is not truly the end.

That mum lives on forever through each of us.

In Jesus' name,

Amen.

Prayers of the Faithful

Gilda Ariti, Joe Ranieri and Jim Ranieri

Gilda: We pray for those who are sick. Who's body or mind is suffering. May they fully heal and return to perfect health. Lord hear us.

Response: Lord hear our prayer

Joe: We pray for the family and friends of those who are sick or suffering. May they find the strength to get them through each day, and be comforted in their times of sorrow or grief. Lord hear us.

Response: Lord hear our prayer

Jim: We pray for the caregivers in our nursing homes. May God guide them in their work and give them strength each day. May they be blessed for their hard work and dedication. Lord hear us.

Response: Lord hear our prayer

Final Prayer

Naha Fazzari

Into your hands, O Lord,
We humbly entrust our beloved.
In this life you embraced them with your tender love;
Deliver them now from every evil,
And bid them enter eternal rest.

The old order has passed away:
Welcome them into paradise,
Where there is no sorrow, no weeping, no pain,
But the fullness of peace and joy
With your Son and the Holy Spirit
Forever and ever.

Amen.

Reading: Poem

Excerpt from The Beauty of Death XIV by Khalil Gibran
Cheryl McKenzie

Unwrap me from this white linen shroud and clothe me
With leaves of jasmine and lilies;
Take my body from the ivory casket and let it rest
Upon pillows of orange blossoms.
Lament me not, but sing songs of youth and joy;
Shed not tears upon me, but sing of harvest and the winepress;
Utter no sigh of agony, but draw upon my face with your Finger the symbol of Love and Joy.
Disturb not the air's tranquility with chanting and requiems,
But let your hearts sing with me the song of Eternal Life;
Mourn me not with apparel of black,
But dress in color and rejoice with me;
Talk not of my departure with sighs in your hearts; close
Your eyes and you will see me with you forevermore.
