

Thank you

Thank you for being with us to celebrate Roger's life.

Words cannot express our most sincere and heartfelt thanks for the kindness, love, support and friendship that we have been shown during this difficult time.

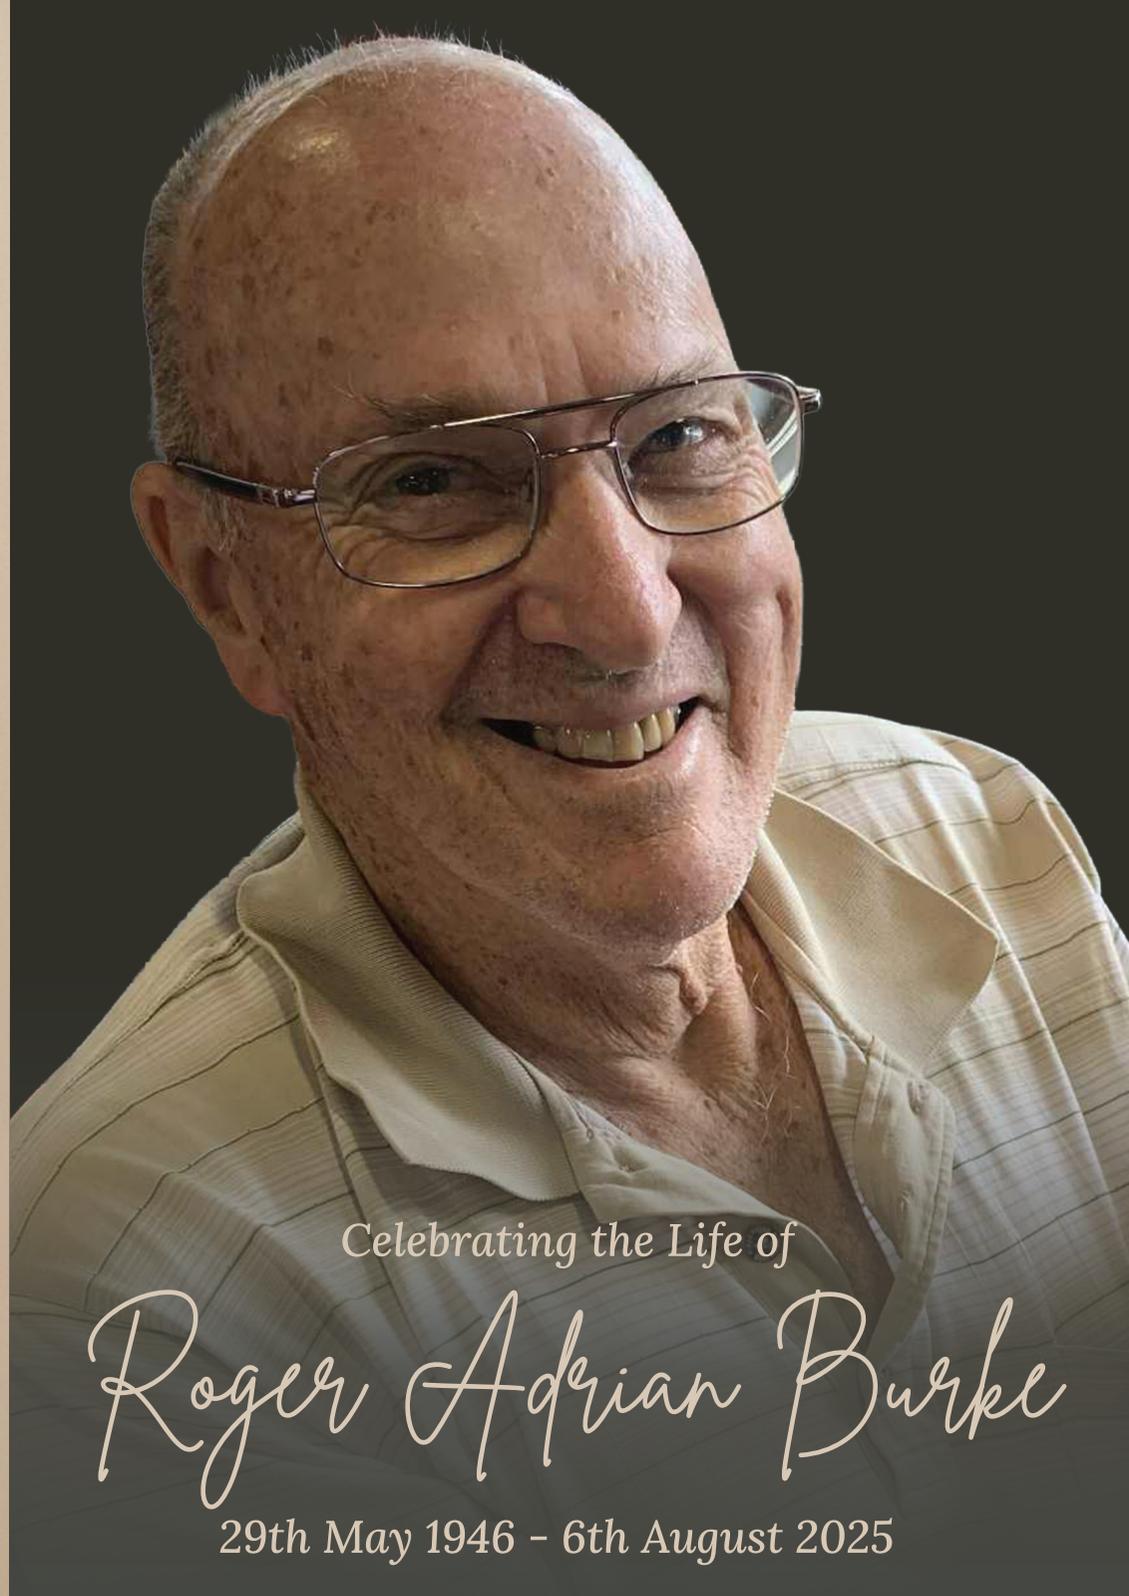

A reception will follow, to share memories and celebrate Roger's life, at the Moreton Bay Trailer Boat Club from 12:30 onwards.

Celebrating the Life of

Roger Adrian Burke

29th May 1946 - 6th August 2025

Willy Wagtail

Messenger and Guide:

In many Aboriginal cultures, the Willy Wagtail is believed to be a messenger from the spirit world, carrying news or guidance. Some believe it can act as a guide for the souls of the deceased.

Good Luck and Protection:

Seeing a Willy Wagtail is often considered a sign of good luck and protection.

Joy and Cheerfulness:

The bird's lively and active nature is associated with joy and the encouragement to be cheerful and sociable.

Adaptability and Resourcefulness:

The Willy Wagtail's ability to thrive in various environments is linked to adaptability and resourcefulness.

Communication and Intuition:

The bird's active nature and vocalizations are associated with communication and connecting with one's intuition.

Healing and Determination:

Some interpretations suggest the Willy Wagtail symbolizes healing, determination, and resilience.

Feel no guilt in laughter

Feel no guilt in laughter, he knows how much you care
Feel no sorrow in a smile that he's not here to share
You cannot grieve forever, he would not want you to
He'd hope that you can carry on, the way you always do
So talk about the good times and the ways you showed you cared
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared
Let memories surround you. A word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day
That brings him back as clearly as though he were still here
And fills you with the feelings that he is always near
For if you keep these moments, you will never be apart
And he will live forever locked safe within your heart.
