From Me

By Anna Williams

*If you see a sunset, it's me,
smiling from behind it.
If I go away far, and you see a star
if you find it, I'm inside it.
You can fold it, and hold it forever,
if you hide it.
If our words and worlds sever
if ever I lose you.
If two thousand light-years
or seven confuse you;
Remember me. Here and in Heaven
I'll see you.
I'll be beguiling my filing,
still smiling to see you.
When mountains, magenta and moulded
turn red, like you said,
You'll find the feeling
you folded not dead.
You'll steal the swirling sky,
turning with me.
You won't be bounded,
but burning and free.*
