

One at Rest

Think of me as one at rest; for me you should not weep. I have no pain, no troubled thoughts, for I am just asleep.

The living, thinking me that was is now forever still, and life goes on without me as time forever will.

If your heart is heavy now because I've gone away, dwell not long upon it, friend, for none of us can stay.

The answer to life's riddle, in life I never knew; I go with hope that now I will, and even so will you.

Oh, foolish, foolish me that was, I who was so small, to have wondered, even worried, at the mystery of it all.

And in my fleeting life span, as time went rushing by, I found some time to hesitate, to laugh, to cry.

Matters it now if time began, if time will ever cease? I was here, I used it all, and now I am at peace.

If you need this adjusted for a specific format (program, headstone, obituary), I can tailor it exactly.
