Welcome and Prayer of Consolation

Father Kevin

“Father, as I mourn this loss, I ask for Your comfort to surround me. Heal my heart and help me find hope in the days ahead. Grant me strength as I face the pain of this loss, and give me the courage to trust in Your love. Help me cling to the promise of Your presence and to believe that You are with me through every tear and sorrow. Thank You for being a God of compassion and comfort. Amen.”

Reading Psalm 23: The Lord is my Shepherd

Father Kevin

*The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing.
He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Brad Newman

“We little knew that day, God was going to call your name. In life we loved you dearly, In death, we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you. You did not go alone. For part of us went with you, The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories, Your love is still our guide. And although we cannot see you, You are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, And nothing seems the same, But as God calls us one by one, The chain will link again.”

Steven Tyrrell

“Do not stand By my grave, and weep. I am not there, I do not sleep- I am the thousand winds that blow I am the diamond glints in snow I am the sunlight on ripened grain, I am the gentle, autumn rain. As you awake with morning’s hush, I am the swift, up-flinging rush Of quiet birds in circling flight, I am the day transcending night. Do not stand By my grave, and cry- I am not there, I did not die.”

A Note From Nita

When I think of our friendship, I realise that it is one of the things I cherish the most in my life. It is hard to put into words a “thank you” with enough meaning for all the times you have come through for me; for all the times you have listened instead of telling me what to do; for all the times you have hugged away my troubles; for the laughs over nothing; for the many tears dried.

Thank you for it all, my special, cherished friend!
