Obituary

Dennis was a kind and caring man who loved God, his family, sports and working with those who are disadvantaged.

He was born on 20 October 1947 to Lucy and Fred Everett and spent his childhood in Wellington, New South Wales, with his four brothers, Roger, Rex, Mark and Terry, and his sister, Vicki.

In late 1971, he met and fell in love with Lynne. They later married and had two sons, Scott and David.

In his earlier days, Dennis loved playing sports, especially tennis, golf, squash and cricket, and played each of them fairly well. For most of his life, he also loved to drive and happily drove for hours, travelling to many places throughout Queensland and the southern states of Australia.

He is survived by his wife, Lynne; his sons, Scott and David; and his granddaughter, Zyah.
